ABOUT

Erik Jensen has dedicated his professional practice to the defense of employers within the workers' compensation system since 2004. He has represented a wide variety of Fortune 500 companies, public agencies, and professional sports teams throughout his career. He has experience in criminal law, subrogation suits, asbestos litigation, medical malpractice and alternative dispute resolution. He has also served as an instructor for Sedgwick Claims Management's adjuster training program.

Erik graduated with High Honors from California State University, Fullerton in 1997. He subsequently accepted a full scholarship from Chapman University School of Law in Orange where he became member of the school's Law Review and Mock Trial Team. He was the recipient of numerous awards for academic excellence throughout his law school career including a prestigious post-graduate fellowship from the American Board of Trial Attorneys during which he received personal instruction from some of the most accomplished litigators in Orange County. Erik was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2002
