ABOUT

In 2007, Michelle began her legal career with Hanna Brophy as a Receptionist while attending California State University of Sacramento where she earned her BS in Business Administration with a concentration in Human Resources.

Michelle continued to grow with the firm and take on new jobs and responsibilities until she became a Certified Paralegal in 2013. Michelle assists our attorneys with various aspects of defense litigation such as drafting petitions and the discovery process.

During her free time, Michelle enjoys spending time with her family, hunting, fishing, sewing and other crafting activities.
