ABOUT

Samuel started as an Associate Attorney at Hanna Brophy's Van Nuys office in April of 2023. Before that, practiced workers compensation defense for three years, with other respected firms in both Southern and Northern California, after passing the Bar Exam in 2019. Prior to that, worked as a law clerk in areas of workers compensation and civil litigation. While at Lewis & Clark Law School, worked as a court-certified intern for a local prosecutor, handling and trying misdemeanor criminal cases alone. Hobbies include running, reading, going to the beach, and as an avid supporter of the San Francisco Giants, going to baseball games.
