Dahlia Mojica is a Hearing Representative and Manager of Hanna Brophy's Lien Unit which she helped create. Before joining our firm, Ms. Mojica obtained over 13 years of experience in the California workers' compensation system as a Hearing Representative and Paralegal. With this extensive experience, Dahlia is able to analyze medical and legal evidence, and is able to resolve lien matters quickly and efficiently, saving both time and litigation costs to an array of clients. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Mount Saint Mary's University, Los Angeles and her Paralegal Certificate-Litigation Specialist (ABA approved) from California State University, Los Angeles. Dahlia mentors undergraduates and is part of the Peer Mentor/Student Leadership program at Mount Saint Mary's University.
