Shelly Pu is an associate attorney in the Sacramento office, specializing in defending workers' compensation claims for employers, insurance carriers, and third-party administrators. She is known for her strong negotiation skills, transparent client communication, and efficient claims resolution.

Prior to joining Hanna Brophy, Shelly worked as a workers' compensation applicant attorney throughout California. This background gives her unique insight into resolving cases in the most cost-effective manner.

In her spare time, Shelly finds pleasure in cycling and cherishing moments with her family.
